

AASL CONFERENCE STUDENT AWARD

Purpose:

The conference award is intended to introduce library school students interested in a career in architecture school librarianship to the membership and activities of AASL through attendance at the organization's annual conference. The conference will be in Boston, MA, March 1-4, 2012.

Award Amount:

1. $500 for travel expenses (given in the form of a check from AASL to the recipient after the post-conference report is received following the annual meeting)
2. Waiver of the annual meeting registration fee (at the student rate)
3. Waiver of annual AASL dues for a period of one year

Eligibility:

Students who are currently enrolled in an ALA accredited graduate library school program or have recently graduated (within 12 months of graduation) are eligible for the award.

Guidelines:

- Applicants must submit a completed application form, accompanied by a current résumé, to the Awards Committee by the specified closing date
- Recipients of the award must confirm in writing (e-mail will suffice) that s/he is able to meet the requirement of full conference attendance
- Recipients of the award will submit a brief post-conference report for posting on the AASL website. The report should outline conference activities and experiences and include an account of how the award supported professional development goals
- In a year in which no suitable applications are received, or if AASL funds are insufficient, the grant will not be awarded

Application deadline is Friday, January 27, 2012
